Re: Syndicated Exclusivity Notice

Dear Ms. Patten:

NPG of Texas, L.P., licensee of KVIA-DT, El Paso, Texas, whose address is 4140 Rio Bravo, El Paso, Texas 79902, (the "Station") hereby provides notice of its program exclusivity rights with respect to certain programming pursuant to Sections 76.101-76.110 of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission.

The Station is entitled to program exclusivity, to the fullest extent permitted by law, for the programs/series and for the periods of time listed below:

Judge Maria Lopez

September 11, 2006 – September 27, 2008

Pursuant to its agreements with Sony Pictures Television Inc., the Station is entitled to such protection commencing immediately, and is entitled to such protection with respect to Time Warner Cable commencing on the date set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 76.105(b).

In addition, the Station is entitled to non-duplication protection against importation of each of these programs/series in either analog or digital format from any source, including a superstation.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions concerning this notice.

Sincerely,
